

The Kimberly and Eric J. Waldman
Department of Dermatology

Alopecia Areata Patient Educational Program

Thursday, June 8, 2023

5pm-8pm

Mount Sinai Hatch Auditorium:
Guggenheim Pavilion - 2nd floor
1468 Madison Avenue (at 101st Street)
New York, New York 10029

New Location!

To Register, Visit:
NAAF.ORG/MOUNTSINAI

Light Refreshments will be served.

Presentations & Speakers:

- | | |
|------------|---|
| 5:00
PM | Welcome and Program Overview
Emma Guttman, MD, PhD |
| 5:15
PM | Clinical Manifestations of AA and Assessing Disease Scores
Brett King, MD, PhD |
| 5:30
PM | The Epidemiology of Alopecia Areata & Risk Factors Associated with Increased Risk to Develop Alopecia Areata
Benjamin Ungar, MD |
| 5:45
PM | Pathophysiology of AA & Role of Various Immune Pathways in the Disease
Emma Guttman, MD, PhD |
| 6:00
PM | Alopecia Areata as a Systemic Disease & Associated Atopic, Autoimmune & Neuropsychiatric Comorbidities & Psychological Disease Patient Burden
Patrick Brunner, MD, MSc |
| 6:15
PM | New, Emerging Systemic Treatments for Alopecia Areata
Natasha Mesinkovska, MD, PhD |
| 6:30
PM | Diagnosing & Treating AA in Children and Adolescents, including Addressing Unique Psychological Aspects in Patients & Families
Brittany Craiglow, MD |
| 6:45
PM | The Role of NAAF in Supporting Patients and Promoting Development of New Treatments for AA
Nicole Friedland, President and CEO of National Alopecia Areata Foundation |
| 7:00
PM | Live Testimonials from Pediatric and Adult Patients with Alopecia Areata, Panel discussion with all participants and Q & A
Moderated by: Benjamin Ungar, MD |
| 8:00
PM | Closing Remarks
Emma Guttman, MD, PhD |